SASP 2020: Thursday 7 October
Day 1: 10-16.30
10.00-10.15 Opening and welcome
10.15-10.45.Theme: Visceral pain
Why is Irritable Bowel Syndrome painful, and how can we help these patients? Hans Törnblom, Gothenburg University
10.45-11.15 The Harald Breivik lecture 2020 Why three drugs instead of just one? Unveiling the secrets of the Breiviks blandning, Narinder Rawal, Örebro University
11.15-11.30 Break
11.30-12.30 Theme: Glial cells and pain
Why study satellite glial cells in pain? Sara Jager, KCL, London
Why do we need to look closer at the peripheral nerve ending? New sensory organ in the skin Patrik Enfors, Karolinska Institutet
12.30-13.30 Lunch Break
13.30-15 Theme: Pain rehabilitation
Who benefits from Interdisciplinary Pain rehabilitation? Björn Gerdle, Linköping University
Why use the mHealth agile research lifecycle to develop a digital behavioral treatment for chronic pain? Sara Bartels, Karolinska institute
Why is physical exercise beneficial in chronic pain? Henrik Bjarke Vægter, University of Southern Denmark
15-15.15 Break
15.15-17.15 POSTER session and mingel in Gathertown (https://www.gather.town/ more info will be provided after registration)

SASP 2020: Friday 8 October

Session 10-16
10-11.30 Theme: Widespread pain
Why should the brain be considered in fibromyalgia? Eva Kosek, Karolinska Institutet
How could autoantibodies play a role in fibromyalgia? Emerson Krock, Karolinska Institutet
Why should the peripheral nerve be considered in fibromyalgia? Nurcan Üçeyler, University of Würzburg
11.30-11.45 Break
11.45-12.15 Abstract Award presentations
2 x 10 min with 5 min QA (TBD)
12.15-13.30 Break
13.30-15.00 Theme: Sleep and pain
The Sleep Revolution -health and technology Erna Sif, Reykjavik University
Why may shiftwork be a risk factor for pain? Dagfinn Matre, National Institute of Occupational Health (STAMI)
Why would the glymphatic system affect pain? Lilius Tuomas, University of Helsinki
15-15.20 Round up and conclusion, short break
15.20-16 General assembly